

MEMORIES & CONDOLENCES

THOMAS FRANKLIN TRIM

May 2, 2016

Worked with Tom many years in Denver. Always a joke or 2, always a pleasure to work a flight with or to work the ticket counter.

Just found out about Tom's passing. I just want to say he will be greatly missed. He was a funny, funny man and he was so nice to all of his working companions at Frontier Airlines. Always there to help - never complain - he will be greatly missed.

I've known Tom for close to 50 years, he was like a father figure to all of us kids on the block growing up in the 1960's in Lakewood. He will be greatly missed! What a kind-hearted and funny man. My heart goes out to you Anabelle, Jackie, Burt, and Kent.

Tom was one of my favorite uncles! He was king of jokes and had a wonderful smile. He was my dad's brother and friend - they were two of a kind. My heart goes out to you, Aunt Annie, as well as, Burt, Kent and Jackie. Much Love.
