I ran across these in Some old papers - stored in Box - for years.

most of it is self exploratory and somewhat historical & cause for celebration in my life.

Notice the letter from C.N.
is dated 10/63 -

They sent another on 6/64
informing me of a pending opening - And another, telling me to report to work in October 64.

those I couldn't find.

Dear Mr. Guthrie:

On October 8, 1963, Central Airlines, Inc. and the IAM signed a Settlement Agreement which provides that employees who participated in the strike which began on April 8, 1958, and who have not yet been recalled shall:

1. Continue to have their original seniority based on their original dates of employment.
2. Receive a written notice from the Company requesting them to answer within thirty days as to whether they desire to exercise their recall rights under the Settlement Agreement.
3. Be restored to their proper positions on the regular seniority list provided for in Article 4 (11) of the collective bargaining contract and that after recall shall have full rights under the contract based on seniority standing.
4. Have no rights of recall under the collective bargaining contract or the Settlement Agreement if they fail to indicate their intent to exercise recall rights within thirty days from the sending date of the Company's notice.
5. Be recalled, unless disqualified under point 4 above, in accordance with their seniority when a vacancy occurs in the bargaining unit but shall not exercise other rights of seniority, such as job bidding rights, until they are recalled. In the event of a layoff they shall be treated as laid off employees entitled to recall in accordance with their seniority and the recall provisions of the collective bargaining contract.
6. Be notified by certified mail sent to the employee's last known address when a vacancy occurs, with a copy of such notice to the Union. It is the responsibility of the employee awaiting recall to notify the Company of any change in his address.

7. On receipt of a recall notice, shall advise the Company within five days if he intends to return to work. If he fails to do so, or if he advises that he will not accept recall, the Company shall have no further obligation to recall him to employment and the employee shall have no further rights under the Settlement Agreement or the collective bargaining contract.

In accordance with point 2 above, this letter constitutes the written notice from the Company, and you are hereby requested to answer within thirty days from the sending date of this notice as to whether you desire to exercise your recall rights under the Settlement Agreement.

Sincerely,

Evan Lingle
Director of Personnel
