I would like to thank everyone for the birthday wishes yesterday. I tried to keep up but soon became overwhelmed. It certainly warms your heart to hear from so many friends and family seems like a place to once again share my favorite quote , which I always get wrong , but I like mine best ..... " THERE ARE THOSE WHO WALK INTO YOUR LIFE AND LEAVE FOOTPRINTS THAT TIME CANNOT ERASE. " love you all.

Bill Guthrie

I even got my wrong version wrong. "footprints on your heart"
