

Candis Dolan

This Guest Book has been kept open until 1/18/2015 by Olinger Woods Chapel.

<http://www.legacy.com/guestbook/dignitymemorial/guestbook.aspx?n=candis-dolan&pid=168641142>

Tuesday, December 31, 2013

Candy was the very essence of kindness. Her spirit so sweet and her heart so giving. You have earned your wings so fly high and meet the other angels that took flight before thee, but here on earth we all know the beauty of this newly found angels is majestic in kind...watch over us, and guide us as we miss your essence on earth. Thank you for being such a graceful person, a person who was a great role model for the next generation. We love you and you will be missed.

~ Tawna Gimborys (Darriel & Gay's daughter),
Elizabethtown, Kentucky

Monday, December 30, 2013

So sorry to hear that you have gone, but you have left a living legacy in your daughter, Amber. You will be missed by all and will always be loved by everyone as well, who had the chance to meet and know you. GOD Bless your travels and may you be walking on the golden streets of glory as I am writing this! Say "hello" to all that has gone before, and welcome those who will be on their way. Love sent Candy....always!

~ Spook and Gay McClure,
Denver, Colorado

Monday, December 30, 2013

I find myself alone here without you and Daryl. How I will so deeply miss our phone calls, the way we laughed and cried together. No one knew like you did. People say take it one day at a time but everyday is like a year to me. I know you are a beautiful angel now watch over us and protect us. I love you sis till we meet again your little sister Kathy

~ Kathy McLaren,
Hawley, Texas

Sunday, December 29, 2013

As you leave this world I find myself broken hearted and alone, all though I know you are in a better place I will miss you so much. Our phone calls that would last for hours at a time, the way we could laugh and cry together. You was my very best friend my beloved sister. No one could understand me like you could. I will look forward to seeing you again in heaven. Watch over us and protect us. I love you Candy and will find it hard everyday to be without you. People say to take it a day at a time but my days without you and Daryl are like a year each day. love always your sister Kathy

~ Kathy McLaren,
Hawley, Texas

Sunday, December 29, 2013

My Dear Aunt Candy is and always will be the one that when I was with her... I made sense! I feel blessed that I was able to be with her in the hospital for the first week after her heart surgery. I could not have been any where else... her smile will and her off key singing (with all her heart) will forever be in my heart...and forever be missed!

~ Misty May Ragan,
Tuscola, Texas

Thursday, December 26, 2013

A part of my life on this earth is now gone. I know I will see my sister again when I leave this life. Till we meet again.

~ Gary Smith,
Las Vegas, Nevada

Thursday, December 26, 2013

All our thoughts & Prayers go out to the family. May God mend your Heart.

~ Larry Hale,
Hawley, Texas

Wednesday, December 25, 2013

To my sweet cousin Candy Kisses. I miss you and love you. You always made me smile. We laughed together a lot and we cried together at many occasions but mostly smiled and laughed. You have left a voided spot in my and your families hearts and it will never be repaired. But with the knowledge that we will be together some day, we will carry on because that is what you would want. You never lost that warm loving smile and we shall not lose ours. Because if we do, we lose you again and everything that you stood for. My love sweet cousin.

~ Nancy Dugger,
Okolona, Arkansas

Wednesday, December 25, 2013

Sweet Aunt Candy. I know you will be missed by so very many. I will miss your amazing sense of humor and how you always made me laugh whenever we were together. You're an angel now looking down on all of the ones you love, and I know that you are dancing and smiling. That your wish would be for all the people that are left here, to dance and smile too. For soon we will all be together in God's kingdom.

Thank you for the love and laughter you brought to my life. I love you and will miss you.

~ Samantha Adair (Thorp),
Surprise, Arizona

Saturday, December 21, 2013

Little did I know that fateful day a couple of weeks ago what an impact Candis would make on me. From her admission and through out her stay, she shared her family and her feelings with me/us in the ICU. Although she felt absolutely horrible at times, she maintained her sense of humor. Candis was a gift to all who came in contact with her. She is one of those patients who left a lasting impression on her nurses. My heart felt thoughts and prayers go out to her family and friends. Fond memories will help you through the difficult times. Know that she is up in heaven watching over all of you!

A wise friend once told me that once a loved one leaves this earth, they become another star up in the night sky looking down on their loved ones. So on those nights when you feel lonely and missing her, look to the sky and notice the twinkling star. That twinkling star is Candis looking down and winking at you!!

~ Deneen Tangsrud,
Arvada, Colorado