

Jennie Fisher Gentry
Obituary
July 29, 1930 ~ March 27, 2013

Jennie Fisher Gentry, 82, died Wednesday March 27, 2013 of complications of diabetes. She was born on July 29, 1930 in Heber City, Utah, to Dora Crook and Andrew Walter Fisher. The family relocated to Lindon, Utah, where she graduated from Pleasant Grove High School.

She married Robert N. Ostergaard. They were the owners of the Orchid Shop in Lindon and later divorced. She was employed as a bookkeeper at Holly Auto in American Fork.

She married Eugene Davis Gentry on October 25, 1965 and resided in Ogden, Utah. They were sealed in the LDS Ogden Temple on April 17, 1987. She was a resident of Clinton, Utah.

Jennie was a devoted member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She held many positions of leadership. She had a passion for flowers and established her own wedding flower business. She was talented and creative especially with handiwork in needlepoint, quilting and crocheting. Jennie loved to care for her roses and raspberries. She was famous for her raspberry jam!

She will be remembered by her loyalty to God, family and friends and by her kindness and caring nature. She was loved by children and she loved them.

Jennie is survived by her son, Lynn Ostergaard (Linda), and her daughters, Karie Wood (Terry), Kay Shafter, Darlene Ostergaard, three step-sons, Eugene Gentry Jr., Scott Gentry, and Rick Gentry (Patti), 21 grandchildren and 52 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, sisters, Norma and Fern, and one grandchild.

Funeral services will be Wednesday, April 3, 2013, at 11:00 a.m., at the Clinton North Stake Center, 1800 North 1500 West, Clinton, Utah. A viewing will be held from 9:00-10:45 a.m., prior to services, at the church.
