

GUESTBOOK

Jack "Beetle" Bailey

Jack and I flew dual tracks, as Frontier/Continental Pilots and as Army Aviators. A select few who flew the Mohawk attesting to his airmanship. We stayed in contact while shopping for airplanes to fly in our "senior" years. Jack was a consummate gentleman, great friend and comrade in arms.

Blue Skies and Tail Winds always in your final flight west, my friend.

Pat and Jack were part of our Heritage Eagle Bend Bible study when it first began. They came every time until the time that their daughter and grandchildren moved in with them. They were devoted parents and grandparents and helped care for their grandkids when their daughter went back to school. We are very happy that our paths in life crossed with theirs.

Jack was a friendly, fun, energetic guy who loved life and loved Jesus. It is such a comfort and joy to know he is in Heaven with Jesus and realizing his well deserved reward and rest. We appreciate being able to attend his beautiful funeral with a huge crowd of friends who loved and appreciated Jack and are grateful for the life he lived and the eternity he will spend with Jesus in heaven. We thank God for the life of Jack Burt.

Thinking of the Burt family today and specifically, my nephews, who share their grandfather's name. On the couple of times that I was honored to, I enjoyed meeting and talking to Jack. I never forgot how good he was to our youngest son, Derek, who in 1993, at age 13, accompanied his Uncle Tom on a visit to Denver, where they played golf and toured Mile High Stadium. A year and a half ago, Jack introduced me to, and bought my first "Arnold Palmer" at Ft. Jackson, SC. Family, be comforted in knowing that Jack lived well and died doing what he loved to do.

Jack was my oldest cousin. I have great memories of time spent with him. He loved his Hungarian Heritage, music & food. A trip to Hungary was always on his bucket list and I was so happy he got there. Lots of loving relatives are together with him now. You will be missed Cuz!!

El Caapitaaan, I will greatly miss you and our sorties together. If there is a way, look over my shoulder as I pierce the crisp blues skies of Colorado and continue to offer words of wisdom and anecdotes of laughter. Thank you for sharing your time with me, I will never forget you.

My condolences to Pat and her family on their huge loss. I first met Jack when he came to work at Frontier Airlines in 1967 and always enjoyed him immensely. An excellent pilot, he was a definite credit to Frontier and well liked by everyone. All of us will miss him greatly.

Tom--I am so sorry to hear about your father's passing. Grief changes but it never goes away. It is awesome that your Dad was doing what he loved when he passed. It is hard to lose a parent no matter what age or circumstance. I can't make the service but I will think of you. My prayers are with you and your family.

Pat & Family: We are so sorry for your loss. We have been friends with Jack through our church (DFC) and our Sunday School Class (His Cornerstone). We used to tease him on Sunday mornings when they would arrive for class and he would take his time looking for the best donut on the table to go with his coffee. He loved to make us laugh. We will miss him, his wonderful personality and the fact that he was always so friendly towards us. He was certainly bigger than life!

Jack is in the loving arms of our Lord Jesus Christ! May the Lord give you peace, understanding and comfort! Jesus is our source of strength during times like this! Our prayers are with you.

Darlene Burt Sadlo

Jack is my eldest brother and he is so much to be proud of. He excelled in everything he did and certainly had a strong personality! We are heartbroken, but he has left many strong children and grandchildren, nieces and nephews to carry on for him. I am heartsick that I cannot be there to celebrate his life with all of you...I'm still trying to recover from my illness of last year. I will be there in spirit. Husband Art Sadlo also sends his love.
