“Jeaneane is one of those people you never forget. While we went our separate ways after high school when I heard the news that she had passed away, her sweet face flew before my eyes. I know the impact she made on my life as a young girl and can only imagine that her sweetness, friendliness and love for everyone continued to touch the hearts and lives of those she met throughout her life. My prayers and best wishes go out to her family who I know are feeling her absence so strongly. God bless you and keep you all!

“I was hoping this wasn't true when my mom called and told me the news- My second best friend I ever had. She had the coolest house, the wow-est water bed in her mom's room, a gorgeous sunken living room, fabulous popsicles. It's funny what hits you as a child. She had the most beautiful sweet smile, gorgeous face, and warm and beautiful laugh. When I saw her again at the SRHS reunion, little had changed. She was still one of the most beautiful women I had ever met, was always warm and loving, with an easy laugh and a twinkle in her eye. The world will miss you, my second best friend. (My first was Billy McGowen at age 4 - may the two of them meet Amy Roberts in Heaven and all laugh at the shenanigans down here!). I have always loved you. Thank you for your gift of friendship and beauty.

“Hey Jeanean,

I was watching a segment on the Debarge Family last night and it was Narrated by "Baby Face". Remember how those groups set the fashion tone both for shiny spandex pants, which you always looked hot in, and extra shiny curls...eeewwww. How many bottles of Jerry Curl Juice did we go through together? I Marveled at how you floated from place to place, person to person. You never seemed too intense. What stands out is your dazzling smile and that laugh almost like you were laughing at the obvious and the underlying joke that only you knew. Everybody has a beginning and end date. That's inevitable. I know you're in good hands now. So I'm not sad for you. I'm pleased with the job you did w/ the Girls. Chanelle and Benita are quite lovely. Each has qualities from you that reflect your influence in their lives. Miss Maaaaaan.

“Just the sweetest person. All of my memories of her are so pleasant. No matter what me and her sister were going through she never treated me differently and always asked how I was doing. Always stepped in to watch my nieces and son when needed, and never complained about it. When I sit and think about who she reminds me of there really is no one. She was so unique and the crazy thing is I took her for granted by not engaging her in more conversation and assuming she was going to be around to see my son graduate college! She's taught me to say I love you to people more and to realize and understand that although I am here today, I can be gone tomorrow. Most importantly, she taught me how much I loved every member of her family. Honesty, It's not often I wish I could take peoples pain away but if I had the opportunity to erase the pain they feel, the tears they cried, their heartbreak, their confusion, their anger, their frustration - I would do it in a heartbeat. I love you all so very much and would do anything for your sister/daughter to come back. To see you cry is heartbreaking and I pray every night your pain lessens daily.

“You will be missed very much. I am glad we were able to spend our 44th birthday together. Who knew it would be the last time we shared this occasion together. I love you and miss you.
