Joe's contagious laugh while he was telling his famous chicken story was funnier than was the story itself. Each time he told it the freshness remained.

I have known Joe since I was 9 years old, over 53 years. He has a special place in my heart. I've played golf with Joe and have wonderful childhood memories of sliding down the snow covered hills of Evergreen in the "best old inner tubes" from Frontier. My folks played pinochle with Joe and Dorothy in the infamous pinochle club. They laughed and joked and accused Joe of cheating because he played with "marked cards". I love you all and am honored that the Pasqua family is part of my life. Thank you, dear Joe!!!

To the entire Pasqua family, Joe was a special man and will truly be missed. His positive influence on our family was felt for many, many years. I hope you can take some comfort in the love we all have for him and in the many happy memories. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers.
