

FLacebook postings about Johnnie Tyler

Jake Lamkins

I just got word that pilot Johnnie Tyler flew west this morning on St. Patrick's Day. It seems fitting he would leave us on such a day. He was a terrific guy and always a pleasure to be around.

Sad!!!!

Carolyn Lutz
A gentleman to fly with and such a nice person. Will miss him.

Jack McLaughlin
Great guy, did you ever see him when he wasn't smiling?

Jake Lamkins
I never talked to him that I didn't laugh out loud at least once.

Bill Guthrie
He was one of the good guys.

Rosemary Wirth VanEpps
Always thought he should be on Grand Old Opry..Had personality and talent to balance..There will be lots more music waiting for us, now. Will be a grande reunion, on the other side. Bless you Johnnie Tyler for all the positive joy you brought into the room..RIP

Irene Fairweather
Sorry to hear this. Nice, nice, happy man, always smiling.

Phillip R Stallings
A great guy ... We will miss him...

Vicky Veldboon
Oh, so sad. Johnnie was such a wonderful, sweet man! I will always remember his huge smile and big hugs!

Karen Ward Berry
I'm so sorry to hear this news about Johnnie. You can't help but smile when you think of him if you knew him at all. Thanks for the smiles and memories Johnnie.

Martie Palser
Thanks for the memories Johnnie. You were a pleasure to fly with, and always a gentleman.

Ken Nicholas
Johnny was a great friend and will be missed.

Henry Greathouse
I remember he was always in a good mood. Marti is right, "always a gentlemen."

Judi Fenton Plumer
Always great when Johnnie would taxi into FOE in CV80 or 77 with that smile and great Humor..he will be missed and remembered!

Frank Malone

I flew so many times with Johnnie on both the CV80 & 77. One day in '79 while flying through Enid, he got to meet my new born son, Jonathan Tyler. You should have seen his face as he was beaming.
We love ya Johnnie and will remember you always.

Anita Gunderson

He was a sweet person !

Tom Robertson

I flew many times with Johnnie and he was one of the best, both inside and outside the cockpit. His brother J.N. Tyler worked as a dispatcher both at Frontier and later with American. I spoke with I spoke with J.N. this afternoon and he said Johnnie fought a long battle with cancer.

Lanette Duncan

We all loved Johnny. Lot's of great memories.

Sheril D Rodgers

what a great friend and great guy----wonderful attitude and always made everyone feel at ease.

Carol Bartley

He's in Heaven with his buds making sweet, sweet music!

Connie Mcalister

We lost another Great Guy! Loved his smile.

Karen Davidsaver

Super 'big ol' boy, what a great guy, always smiling!

Kathleen Dionne

He was special as all the comments confirm. Gone too soon.

Bonnie C Dahl

Johnnie was the best of the best, what a fun, talented guy and he was one of Frontier's best pilots. God Speed to Johnnie. He will be missed!

Pam Ellis

He was a wonderful guy! Everyone loved him

Jeff Nichols

Sorry to hear about Johnny had a lot of good times.

Mary Ann Henderson

Rest in Peace, Johnny. I remember all the "trouble" we used to get in to in MTJ when you played with a local band there. You taught me the medicinal value of that cockpit oxygen....heehee. I will miss you!!

Amen amen amen!

Ginger Treptow
Look as though he was a great guitar player. A lover of music. Don't remember if I ever met him. May he Rest in Peace.

Crystal Rush
always smiling , very nice, & easy on the eyes!!

Sheril D Rodgers
I spoke with other members of our band "Jus' Plane Grass"====Eddie Birdwell (banjo) and his wife Jeannie called me with the news last night---they had seen John about 8 days ago and were so glad to get to see him, even tho' he was having good and bad days----his son's live in PHX and they were waiting for them to get to Knoxville to make final arrangements.
