Obituary

April 08, 1936 - February 04, 2019

Patricia Darlene Brown (Pat) was born on April 8, 1936 in Denver, Colorado and was adopted by Joseph & Iola Bagdonas. She grew up in Lafayette, Colorado. She went to see the Lord peacefully with her family by her side on February 4, 2019 in New Braunfels, Texas.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her son, Eddy Brown. She is survived by her husband of 57 years, Marvin Brown; her brother, Bill Bagdonas of Red Feather Lakes, Colorado; her daughter and son-in-law, Ellen and Doug Rolando; three grandchildren, Vince Rolando, Geoffrey Rolando, and Aimee Rolando; and two great-grandsons, Tucker and Todd Rolando.

Pat worked many jobs throughout her life. She worked for Frontier Airlines and she worked in food service for the school district so she could keep an eye on her kids. She retired from National Jewish Medical & Research Center in Denver as a medical record clerk.

Pat was an adventurous person, traveling on Frontier Airlines and later traveling to see her Rolando Clan all over the United States. Her most memorable trip was in March of 2001 when she traveled to Israel to walk where Jesus walked and had the unique opportunity to be Baptized in the Jordan River. She spent a lifetime of weekends helping her husband build a cabin in Red Feather Lakes, Colorado.

Her desire was to serve the Lord with all her heart, from raising her children in Far Horizon Baptist Church, to being a very active member of First Baptist Church of Lafayette in Colorado. She recently became an active member of First Baptist Church of New Braunfels when she and Marvin moved to Texas in 2016. Pat was a true inspiration as a servant of the Lord in many areas such as piano player, Sunday School Teacher, Bible Study Leader, Awana Leader and recently an Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Filler. She loved playing a tune or two on her accordion in which we all enjoyed. Grandma Bee will forever be in our hearts. Welcome home, faithful servant!

A Celebration of Life will be held on February 15, 2019 at First Baptist Church in New Braunfels from 11:00 ~ 1:00 PM. Ellen and Doug will speak at 11:30, but feel free to come and go. In lieu of flowers, a memorial contribution may be made in her honor to First Baptist Church in Lafayette, Colorado or First Baptist Church in New Braunfels.
