

ONLINE GUESTBOOK FOR TERRY WAYNE KARPEN 1945 - 2017

I'm terribly sorry for you loss, Hope.
Terry was one of the bravest men I've ever met.
His struggles these past few years have been incredible.
My heart goes out to you.
We will miss him at our Fayetteville Frontier meetings.
It was always a pleasure to see him.
I'll build him a memorial webpage later and let you know when it's ready.
It will help keep his memory alive.

Hope, you are in my thoughts and prayers of Our Lord's extra special love and support for you especially at such a sad time. Many good memories of Captain Karpen ~ such a professional gentleman always with a quick smile and a strong warm handshake. Even enduring the stress of our initial flight training he was so very kind & helpful. Terry will be missed by many and I thank the Lord for the privilege of having known such a fine man who has contributed so much to make the world a better place. A salute to a fine Captain as you fly westward my friend!

Dear Papa,
I know you won't be able to ever hear or see this but I wanted to write you anyways. I love you, I am remembering a whole bunch of memories and I can't stop crying because I know I won't be able to ever see you again on this world but I will see you in heaven. I know that I am being selfish because I want you to stay with me until God comes, of course. I am just going to miss you and I know that you are no longer hurting but now I am because I miss you, but the pain will soften, it will never go away but I will be able to manage. I miss you so much and every time I see a picture of you I start to cry. Like the picture of you holding me when I was a baby, you are in your flight uniform just like now and you have that pen in your pocket, the same pen Nana had with her Thursday. You look so loving with a smile on your face. Do you remember Florida when you winked at me then Nana said it meant that you loved me. Then you nodded. I miss you so much and I love you with all my heart, mind, and soul. I will never ever forget the times we had together.

I am going to miss him so much!! He was a great husband, dad, and papa! There are so many memories that I could share. One of the biggest memories that I have of Terry was when he walked me down the isle when I married the love of my life. I remember all of the game nights we had and all of the laughter we shared. I remember seeing the mountains for the first time and going tubing down a mountain again for the first time. I also remember when I had my son, I went into labor and it just didn't seem to be progressing the way that it should have. He walked into my hospital room after just making it back home and put his hand on my shoulder and said it's gonna be alright honey. That is all it took, immediately I told the nurse the baby was coming right now, only to be told no you still have time. As the nurse spoke those words she caught Michael as he came out. All it took was for him to hear his papa's voice and he was here. It was almost like Michael was waiting for his papa to get there for him to come. There are so many more memories such as the way his face would light up anytime children were around. He just loved children, he wanted them to show respect, but he had so much love in his heart for the little ones. He was always there for me when I needed him and even when I didn't think I did need him he was still there for me and I could never, ever thank him enough for being a dad to me for all of these years!!

If I started sharing memories I could write a novel! I will say I am so glad I got the opportunity to thank you the day before you passed for making my sister so happy! You put the light in her eyes and the song in her heart and the wind in her sails! You were an amazing man and I am glad we were blessed to have you in our lives! I am so very proud to call you my brother! RIP!
