

Lesters celebrate 50th

Warren and Leda Lester of Riverton celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, June 3, 2012.

They met during her first year of teaching elementary school after graduating from the University of Wyoming. They were married on June 3, 1962, in Riverton.

He retired from Frontier Airlines and she retired from public school teaching. They are members of the Methodist Church in Riverton.

Both enjoy traveling to historical venues and spending time with their family and friends. She is an avid genealogist for all sides of their family, as well as creating knitted scarves, sweaters, and afghans. She is an excellent baker and all-around chef. She tends a well-kept garden in the summer. He is an enthusiastic musician with the guitar and banjo as his favorites. Moreover, both eagerly and regularly play board and card games.

Their children include son, Douglas W. Lester of Kanagawa-ken, Japan; son Robert "Bob" Lester and spouse, Jo, of Billings, Mont.; son, Rodney Lester and spouse, Rasila, of Irvine, Calif., and son, Roger, and spouse, Julia, of Salt Lake City, Utah. They are the proud grandparents of Margeaux, Nicole, and Alexis Lester.

-Casper Star Tribune, Jun 10, 2012